Chapter 1 by Kaylen Tavarez

“The bear is growling at me and stop ripping off the burned enclosure. That isn’t food.” Gary screamed. The fire was as hot as the sun and was getting as big as the world. The bear finally got out of the fire. Gary called a vet and asked them if they could come and help out the bear who had many burned marks on its fur and many other injuries. The fire burned so much of the bear he was bleeding out.

The bear had a lot of third-degree burns on his body. He also was in so much pain. The bear felt like he could die at that exact moment. He was crying with tears of sadness. The bear had died due to too much blood coming out of his body.
